CELEBRATE RECOVERY

Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
the courage to change the things I can,
and the wisdom to know the difference.
Living one day at a time,
enjoying one moment at a time;
accepting hardship as a pathway to peace;
taking, as Jesus did,
this sinful world as it is;
not as I would have it;
trusting that You will make all things right
if I surrender to your will;
so that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You forever in the next."

-Reinhold Neibuhr

Amen

The 12 Christ Centered Steps

We admitted we were powerless over our addictions and compulsive behaviors, that our lives had become unmanageable, I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature, For I have the Desire to do what is good, but cannot carry it out. (Romans 7:18)

We came to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity, For God who works in you will and to act according to his good purpose. (Philippians 2:13)

We made a decision to turn our wills and our lives over to the care of God. Therefore, I urge you brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God – this is your spiritual act of worship. (Romans 12:1)

We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves, let us examine our ways and test them, and let us return to the Lord. (Lamentations 3:40)

We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs. Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed, (James 5:16)

We were entirely ready to Have God remove all these defects of character. Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He will lift you up. (James 4:10)

We humbly asked Him to remove all our shortcomings. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and will forgive us or sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9)

We made list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all. Do to others as you would have them do to you. (Luke 6:31)

We made direct amends to such people whenever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others. Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother: then come and offer your gift. (Mathew 5:23-24)

We continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it. So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! (1 Corinthians 10:12)

We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, praying only for knowledge and of His will for us and power to carry that out. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, (Colossians 3:16)

What is Celebrate Recovery?

Celebrate Recovery is a Bible-based, Christ-centered recovery program for those who struggle with life's hurts, habits and hang-ups. Its curriculum takes participants through The 8 Recovery Principles, which are based on the Beatitudes.

Who is Celebrate Recovery for?

You may be thinking that recovery is only for those with alcohol or drug problems. This could not be further from the truth. Most of life's hurts, habits and hang-ups can be addressed through this one ministry, including problems with abuse, anger, grief, alcohol, drugs, depression, guilt and shame, financial loss, divorce, dysfunctional families, sexual problems, eating disorders, and much more!
